RETIRED OFFICERS' ASSOCIATION OF PAPUA AND NEW GUINEA

36 Prince Albert Street, MOSMAN. N.S.W. 2088

REGISTERED FOR POSTING AS A PUBLICATION - CATEGORY B

September - October 1979.

Dear Member,

The 1976 Annual report by the Commissioner for Superannuation on the various P.N.G. Funds has not yet been received, so our coverage has been postponed until the December issue.

Our claims for changes in our benefits set out in the June 1978 newsletter are still under consideration. The last letter from Canberra, dated 10th August, advised "....As you know, a general review of the whole question of reversionary entitlements and benefits provided under the Papua New Guinea superannuation arrangements. Unfortunately, this review has taken longer to complete than was originally expected. The work associated with the review, however, is expected to be finished shortly and I will advise you further at that time."

A telephone call last week confirmed that work was continuing but was expected to be accelerated in November. Hopefully the review will not only lead to the granting of our claims but also give up-to-date information on the finances of the Funds.

* * * * *

Pressure from interested organisations such as the R.S.L.H. and old age and superannuation associations, including our own, resulted in raising the maximum amount Aged Pensioners could receive without affecting their "fringe benefits". This has meant a great deal to at least four of our members, who otherwise would have stood to lose an estimated $20 per week.

* * * * *

Thank you for your efforts in recruiting new members, and for sending in some outstanding fees. This is encouraging to your Committee, and even our fair Treasurer, Joyce Oldroyd-Harris, has a smile on her face.

However there are still too many Members unfinancial, despite reminders from the Treasurer. I hope that the consciences of those Members concerned will spur them to stir the moths in their pockets and send in their money.

A suggestion was made at the last Committee Meeting that the new list of Members should note those Members who were unfinancial. This was not carried at the time but I am sure it will be reconsidered.

In the meantime, bearing in mind our financial position and to clear up some queries and misunderstandings about subscriptions, your Committee has decided the following policy should apply :

Naturally, if any Member or widow finds these subscriptions too difficult to meet we should be glad to waive them on application, which would be treated in confidence.

This edition carries a list of members. There are one or two names not in correct alphabetical order, but I should be pleased to get news of any other mistakes. In future Newsletters I hope to include a section showing new members, changes of addresses and so on. From these details members can keep their own lists up to date.

Earlier this year Mrs. Roy Barwick died. As Elaine Hart she came to Woodlark Island as a 10 month old baby in 1910, and later became the first girl to be employed by Steamships, marrying Roy in 1937.

Mr. Harry Jackman has kindly sent a list of books which would be of interest to people who have lived in or visited PNG. Space does not permit inclusion of the whole list in this edition so it will be commenced here and continued in subsequent Newsletters.

BUTCHER, Ben, We Lived with Headhunters, Hodder & Stoughton, London 1963. (By a missionary who spent many years among the people of the Papuan delta.

CHAMPION, Ivan F. Across New Guinea from the Fly to the Sepik, Landsdowne Press, Melbourne, 1966. (Enthralling account of the epic patrol by Charles Karius, assistant resident magistrate, and the author. First publ. 1932.

CHATTERTON, Percy, Day That I have Loved, Pacific Publications, Sydney 1974. (Rev. Dr. Chatterton, former missionary, politician and bible translator recalls his life in pre-World War 2 Papua, and other things, too)

CORRIS, Peter, Passage, Port and Plantation: A history of Solomon Islands labour migration 1870-1914, Melbourne University Press, Carlton, 1973. (After interviewing some of the 'Kanakas' who were recruited for Queensland sugar plantations, and by using archival material, Corris concludes that it wasn't all Bully Hayes stuff.)

ERI, Vincent, The Crocodile, Penguin Books, Ringwood, 1973. (A Gulf Province man faces a new world beyond his village, as war-time carrier and thereafter. The author is an islander.)

EVERETT, Michael, The Birds of Paradise and Bowerbirds, Rigby, Adelaide, 1978. (You don't have to be an ornithologist to enjoy the plates by Gould, Hart and Keulemans, and the original paintings by Peter Hayman.)

FELDT, Eric, The Coastwatchers, Lloyd O'Neil, Hawthorn, 1975. (Cmdr. Feldt who commanded the AIB provides a splendid account of the handful of men who among other things, played a vital role in the battle for Guadalcanal. First pub. 1946.)

GOODE, John, Rape of the Fly, Thomas Nelson, Melbourne, 1977. (No sex here but an exciting story about the Italian Luigi-Maria D'Albertis and the Australian Lawrence Hargrave exploring parts of the Fly River during the 1870's and 1880's.)

GORE, Ralph T., Justice versus Sorcery, Jacaranda Press, Milton, 1965. (Reminiscences of an Australian who spent his working life as a supreme court judge in Papua New Guinea.)

HASLUCK, Paul, A Time for Building: Australian Administration in Papua New Guinea, 1957-1963, Melbourne University Press, Carlton, 1976. (As Minister for Territories, Hasluck played the major role in shaping Papua New Guinea's destiny during his twelve years in the portfolio. Guaranteed to make some ex-kiaps' blood boil.)

Hope to have more concrete and encouraging news about our benefits and the position of our Funds for our Christmas
Newsletter -

Sincerely -

Freddie Kaad
