Dear Member -

1/1986 - March

Get out your diaries and reserve SUNDAY 20TH APRIL - our Annual General Meeting, get-together and luncheon. This will be an important meeting, with some changes to the Constitution proposed. Would those within striking distance please make every effort to come, and would those who can't attend please signify your wishes by sending in your proxies. Full details of the Meeting, time, place, agenda and so on are set out later.

* * * * *

Also in this issue is the annual list of members and their current addresses, a message from the President, a synopsis of the Annual Report of the Commissioner for Superannuation; some news of PNG, of hotels therein, and a little bit of this and that which will be helpful to some, interesting or entertaining to others and inevitably boring to a few - hopefully a very small minority!

* * * * *

C.P.I. ADJUSTMENT. The Consumer Price Index rose by 2 per cent for the quarter ending December 31, making an approximate 6.6 per cent rise for the three quarters of the financial year 1st April - 31st March, which is the basis upon which any change in our superannuation is made. When the March quarter figure is announced you will be able to gauge the probable increase in payments which superannuants or their spouses should receive.

HOLIDAY HOMES SCHEME. Some time ago we mentioned that the Barry Bonds were going overseas for a holiday and exchanging their home and car for ones in England. After four months they have returned fully satisfied about the benefits of home exchanges and highly recommending the idea. The procedure is very simple, the cost very low and the savings excellent. Anyone interested can write Inter Home Holidays, 19 Kurralta Drive, Burnside, S.A. 5066 or contact the Bonds on 075 311521

RESEARCH INTO PNG POLICE FORCE. In March 1985 Una Voce published a request for assistance from August Kituwai, a Papua New Guinean researcher at ANU. It was very nice to receive a letter of thanks from August for the help given by the Association and Members. He concludes "It is enlightening to know that your members are continuing to keep an avid interest in the development that is taking place in PNG that you had once helped to bring to nationhood. I am sure that your continuing interest will help promote the good relationship the two countries share today".

FAREWELL AND GOOD FORTUNE. The PNG High Commissioner in Canberra, Sir Alkan Tololo, and the Consul General in Sydney, Mr Longas Solomon, are due to leave Australia shortly and Mr Aloysius Mom has already left. At different times and in different ways they have all been helpful to the Association and to some individual Members. Our best wishes go with them.

* * * * *

The Geoff Masters travelled to Western Australia last year -- its now old news but it may help Members who are thinking of going to the West to know that they drove to Adelaide and then put their car and themselves on the 'Indian Pacific' to Perth. Geoff strongly recommends that others consider this and is loud in his praise of the trans-Australia train.

AUSTRALIA DAY HONOURS, 1986. Mary Pulsford was awarded the O.A.M. (Medal of the Order of Australia) "for services to the community and to the Y.W.C.A." President of the NSW branch for many years, Mary is married to Bob Pulsford a former didiman. They lived in Rabaul and later in Port Moresby, where they lectured at the Papuan Medical College, and Mary also at the University.

SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING - ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

SUNDAY, APRIL 20.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S CHAIR:

The need for us to have an effective Association working in the interests of its members is self-evident. To this end we have three sub-committees and although in their infancy they are proving worthwhile. A report on their activities will be made at the A.G.M.

Members depend upon Una Voce for news and information, and we hope to expand this service - but we need feedback as to the kind and the mix of material which you want. We also need items of interest which we can publish.

It's very heartening to the office-bearers and committee of the Association to be complimented on our work. As one widow Life Member wrote "Please find cheque enclosed as I haven't sent anything since I paid $20 so long ago, but you do such a good job and I like reading the Newsletter. You would not know me as hubby and I were in Rabaul in 1934 - a long time ago." Or another who wrote when sending a donation "The Association once made me a life member for only $20, which was very good. Now, I think I may be able to look after the Association in my way.." Letters like that don't make us feel complacent - they spur us on.

We are gradually contacting more potential members and inviting them to join the Association. The old adage about "united we stand - divided we fall" is still true for us. A united and bigger group will be more effective against any problems external to our group and a larger number will help to sustain us internally, to provide the assistance some of us may require from within our own ranks.

I know that its out of the question for many Members to attend our Annual General Meeting on Sunday April 20, but please make an effort to come. I look forward to seeing you there!

David Marsh

President.

One of our male chauvinist members reminded me of the well known description of a popular member of the opposite sex -- "when she's good she's very, very good....but when she's bad she's better!"

FINE GESTURE BY AIR NIUGINI

Very many thanks to Brian Costelloe, the airline's Australian manager, who has donated to the Association two return tickets to Moresby. Several suggestions for their use have been made, including a raffle for the Association or some related deserving charity, or as a means, for example, of providing a greater awareness and better relations between PNG and Australia by sponsoring the travel of two people nominated by a service club, church group, Guides, Scouts, or some similar organization;. A problem with all the latter would be the arranging for accommodation and travel within PNG, although a sister organisation there probably could be found to do this. There must be lots of other ways in which the tickets could be used, but before making a decision about this worthwhile gift your Committee felt that it should also seek ideas from Members. So - get on the phone, or write a note and let Secretary Harry West know your views.

STROKE

The realisation that one in seven Australians is a candidate for a stroke and first hand experience of the major problems that can follow for the sufferer, his/her family and friends, caused Pauline Willis to write a booklet to help those who have to care for stroke victims. After 25 years of marriage, her husband - the family breadwinner, father of four, and man on the land was immobilised by a stroke. So the booklet is very practical and helpful.

"Stroke - who cares" is available from Turner & Lord Publications, P.O. Box 171 Vaucluse, NSW 2030, or some bookstores. Part of the proceeds is donated to help stroke rehabilitation.

When you hear complaints about our superannuation remind the speaker of the problems of our overseas Members because of the fall in the value of our dollar. For example, the payments to a Member living in England dropped 100 pounds sterling per fortnight.

The passing of Thomas Jackson is reported in "Vale". Born in 1924, Tom joined the RAAF at 18 and served as a navigator pilot officer on Sunderlands. After getting his Surveyor's degree in 1950 he practiced in Australia until 1957, when he went to work for Lands in Madang and the Highlands, then in Moresby until retirement in 1975.

Although he acted as Surveyor-General for part of this time, it is his work in the Public Service Association for which Tom is more remembered. An active member and officer for 15 years, he was President of the P.S.A. from 1970 to 1973, and then President of the Australian Staffing Assistance Association, which the expatriates of the Public Service had to form, a period which was vital to every serving officer in the lead up to Independence.

Tom hit the headlines when, the only expatriate, he led the protest march of local officers seeking better conditions and housing. Then he turned to the major issue of the uncertainty about the future of permanent overseas officers. Canberra had little or no understanding of the urgency of the situation and realising that the contest would be won in Australia, Tom and the P.S.A. engaged a public relations firm, and through press conferences, T.V. appearances and personal contact with top parliamentarians and officials the Employment Security Scheme was successfully launched.

To quote a close associate "Tom worked tirelessly for the P.S.A.....I am convinced that his astuteness, perception and professional approach determined the result of (the struggle for) the Employment Security Scheme".

The compilation of the Papua New Guinea Dictionary of Contemporary Biography is being undertaken by the University of PNG. The Editor is having a difficult task trying to contact all the nationals and Australians who might be included, so he would appreciate any publicity he can get. He is sending a letter and questionnaire to all the Australians who worked in PNG whom he can find. As the Editor rightly stresses, unless this kind of thing is undertaken soon it will be too late - so I hope that you will complete and return any correspondence you may receive, and tell others about the project.

Plans are afoot for making a complete volume of all the Black and White Magazine issues published in the 60s in Moresby - minus all the advertising of course. Anyone interested should contact Henry Lack, Chief of Staff (News) at Channel 9 Brisbane. (Henry used to be Henri Lachatzak)

Ted Lowney is still chasing trophies. This one is the Levien Cup of the Salamaua Sports Club. It used to be kept in B.P's Mess before the Japs landed in March 1942. Ted saw the convoy entering the harbour and departed in such a hurry he didn't check if the trophy was still there. (I wonder why? Ed.)

Jack Reilly is not so active since he had a stroke, but still enjoys reading the Newsletter and remembering happy PNG days, especially in Dregerhafen.

| | | | |

David Montgomery - ex didiman - also has happy memories and has named his property at Grabben Cullen near Crookwell NSW "Kimbe". He was associated with the purchase of the land in West New Britain where the big new oil palm township of Kimbe is built. His main crop is potatoes, so it is not surprising that his card reads -

Potatoes as a food source are unique in the world.

Potatoes produce more protein per acre than any of the grain crops.

Potatoes rank first in production of raw material

One medium sized potato provides nearly half of the vitamin C we need daily.

Potatoes provide healthy amounts of vitamin B1, niacin, daily iron, and vegetable protein, plus essential fibre.

Potatoes give good nutritional return for every gram of carbohydrate they contain.

Potatoes are low in sodium, virtually fat free and easy to digest.

(After all that -- anyone for a bag of chips ? Ed.)

On January 4th Jimmy and Nancy Burke celebrated the Golden Anniversary (50 yrs) of their wedding in Rabaul in 1936. Jimmy had come to N.G. in 1927 to work in Treasury on the old MARSINA. On hand also were Horrie Niall, Keith McCarthy (District Services), Fritz Haslam and Tony Anthony (Lands). Nancy arrived in far better style on the "Macdhui" in December 1935 - a fortnight late because of a shipping strike (they had them even in those days!). Guests at the wedding included Jack Cruse (Govt Dispenser), Leo Tracey (C/wealth Audit), Noel Boyd-Boland (Health & Posts), Henry and Rita Brinston (Treasury), Larry and Lucy Dwyer (DASF), Molly Hughes the bridesmaid and Edmund (Nip) Burke, Jimmy's brother and best man, and lots more.

Only one of those, Lucy Dwyer, was also at the Anniversary, but many other ex-New Guineans made it, including Linda Evans, Kath Robins, Roma Bates and Tommy Aitcheson. Together with family and friends from school to present day bowling clubs there were quite a crowd to celebrate the day.

* * * * *

Another couple who were married in Rabaul on the same day - thus straining the limited facilities somewhat - were Jean and Keith Chambers (Customs). Keith has not been the best lately so the Chambers celebrated in a less riotous fashion than the Burkes, with a quiet but happy dinner at home.

* * * * *

The reunion held at Bribie Island over the Australia Day weekend turned out to be a great success, with 150 at the Saturday night dinner and a few more at the Sunday BBQ - despite a drop of rain. It seems that by public demand something like it will become an annual event. Considering the talents of the organisers, Bakers, Masters, and Weldons, no one should be surprised (e.g. by charging a little extra for the beer and whisky the wine was free).

Ray Harris, former Director of DCA, gave a talk on the early days of aviation, especially when he and Jack Gray set up T.A.L.; "Balus i Kam" and Jim Sinclair's "New Guinea Patrol" were shown, and among other happenings Elaine Evans (daughter of Harbourmaster 'Frog') donated a PNG flag to grace the next occasion.

Don't worry - your intrepid Editor is keeping tabs on the situation and you will have plenty of notice about the 1987 Bribie Bash if you keep reading the Newsletter.

Seriously though, your Committee was very happy to hear of the success of the occasion, and hopes it will be a lead for others. If you're prepared to organise, were prepared to advertise -- FREE !

DON'T FORGET THE A.G.M. AND LUNCHEON -- APRIL 20TH!

Anyone associated with the Northern District after the Lamington volcanic eruption will be glad to hear that on January 18 there was a gathering of over 50 well-wishers to celebrate two 80th birthdays. One was that of Sister Edna Gilbert - better known as 'Gillie' - one of the 3 infant welfare sisters originally sent in to help. The peripatetic Gillie has now settled in Brisbane - but one wonders for how long?

The other celebrant was Clendyn (Clen) Searle, M.B.E. ex Awala Plantation, Coast-watchers, and P.A.U./A.N.G.A.U. member, whose broadcasts gave the first news of the disaster. Clen and Pat are now in Nambour where they still dispense hospitality as they did at Awala.

Among the early post-eruptionites were Bill and Del Race (Health), Geoff Littler (DDA) - Pat was in Darwin for the arrival of a grandchild - Peg Ford, widow of Max (DDA), and Alan and Win Boag (Ag.), who met at Saiho when Win was a Miss Swift. Other 'Northerners' present were Phil and George Barrett (former architect Moresby before becoming a planter), Janet and Maurice Whish-Wilson, Kaye and Les Cass and Bill and Rosemary Van den Berk (Sangara), also Karl Michel. The party was hosted by the Boags and its easy to imagine the stories and memoirs covering that period - plus the very nearly 35 years since - that were told.

(Very sorry I missed it! Ed.)

"PUBS I HAVE KNOWN"

22.

Our December issue contained an article about the old Moresby Hotel and the Snakepit (Bar). This evidently has created a lot of interest - here is some of the reaction:

This cutting was sent in by Des Large, who says it was printed in an Australian newspaper some years ago. Des also writes:

"I arrived back in Moresby on the Marella in January, 1946 and found the town 'rather worse for wear' from the Army occupation. Do you remember Ivy? I think she was the first barmaid in the Snakepit, and the variety of beers we had in those early days - Three Nuns, Three Horses, Crystal, Anchor, My Favourite, Tuborg and Becks to mention just a few?

Then there is the story of a certain piano-playing Medico called Tony, mentioned by Bob Curtis, who was having a sample of the good stuff in the Snakepit, when one of the Patrons said to him "Cripes, Tony, what can I do about this prickly heat, I'm covered with it." Tony replied "Have you got two quid on you?". The bloke put his two quid on the bar and then Tony turned to him and said "Scratch the bloody stuff the same as I do!!!"

In the early 60s there was an Army Sergeant from the R.A.E.M.E. Workshops at Murray Barracks who was out test driving an Army Landrover. He got down Musgrave Street and when about level with B.P.'s smoke started coming out from under the bonnet. He dived out and opened the bonnet and attempted to wrench a terminal lead from the battery. In the process, the gold wedding ring on his finger shorted out across the terminals and became red hot. He ran across the road to where a group was sitting on the patio of the Moresby Pub. He jammed his burning finger into one chap's glass of beer. I believe he bought the group a round of drinks and later had to have the ring cut off!!"

PUBS..etc....

When Mrs Mary Baldwin arrived in Port Moresby in 1911 the bottom pub was owned and run by Tom McCrann - later it was sold to T.D. Ryan who owned the first car brought to Moresby, a Model T Ford.

* * * * *

Mrs Maude Sinclair remembers the old Salamaua pub run by Alan Innis; miners would get full and run up and down on the flat verandah roof all night. Bill Cameron was the famous barman. Mrs Sinclair concludes "They certainly were the days!"

* * * * *

Just a little more recent is Pamela Foley's recollection of staying overnight at the pub in Lae in 1947 - en route Rabaul-Sydney. The only water she could find to wash in was at the bottom of a 44 gallon drum - outdoors. Not a heartening sight at 5 a.m. before spending all day in a DC3 getting to Sydney at 11 p.m. (if you were lucky).

NEWS FROM P.N.G:

Members will have read or heard that Paias Wingti, a Highlander, became the New Prime Minister in late November. He wants to reduce government spending and has rejected the proposed 1986 Budget. His new Cabinet has been cut by three Ministers.

* * * * *

The state of emergency and curfew imposed in the Moresby area in June was lifted in early November. It had led to an estimated drop of 80% in the crime rate.

* * * * *

A parliamentary committee has been set up to review the provincial government system and will report its views to Parliament in July.

* * * * *

Sydney may boast about its overhead monorail (not yet built), but PNG's first overhead pedestrian crossing has been erected in Lae, linking the Niall Reserve with the shopping complex.

* * * * *

The sugar industry is continuing to develop and PNG expects to sell its full USA quota of 12,500 tonnes, earning over $5.25m.

The two pensions commenced during the year were the last of the deferred pensions payable under the preservation provisions of the Regulations.

Total expenditure on pensions during the year amounted to $11 408 886.

CONTRACT OFFICERS BENEFITS SCHEME

This provided for lump sum benefits on completion of a contract officer's period of employment in Papua New Guinea. All entitlements have been paid and the scheme is effectively closed.

PAPUA SUPERANNUATION SCHEME

Seven male and two female former officers were receiving pensions under this scheme at 30 June 1985, 1 less than the previous year. The scheme did not provide benefits for widows or children. Expenditure during the year was males $93,303 and females $20,789.

NEW GUINEA SUPERANNUATION SCHEME

Under this scheme 3 males' and 5 widows' pensions were ceased upon death during the year and 2 widows's pensions commenced, leaving 12 males and 45 widows in receipt of pensions at 30 June 1985. Expenditure for the year was males $141,900 and widows $348,145.

(ANNUAL REPORT - COMMISSIONER FOR SUPERANNUATION, continued)

Cost of Administration

The administrative costs of the schemes are met from an annual appropriation from Consolidated Revenue.

Reconsideration of Decisions

No requests for reconsideration of any matters by the Commissioner were received during the year.

Freedom of information

No requests under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 were received during the year for access to documents relating to these schemes.

Ombudsman Inquiries and Representations by Members of Parliament

There were no inquiries relating to Papua New Guinea superannuation matters received from the Ombudsman during 1984-85. Three representations on Papua New Guinea superannuation matters were, however, received from Members of Parliament and dealt with during the year.
